

Department	Purpose	Service
United States Coast Guard	Oversees bridge openings and navigational clearance on waterways for maritime traffic	Assist with issues related to bridge openings, navigational clearance, or maritime safety concerns
United States Army Corp of Engineers	Involved in ensuring that bridges over navigable waters comply with federal regulations, particularly regarding waterway impacts and environmental factors	Assistance with matters regarding environmental impact assessments, permits, or compliance related to bridges over navigable waters
Department of Agriculture	Focus on farming, forestry, food safety, and nutrition	Assistance with food assistance programs, agricultural loans, or rural development initiatives
Department of Commerce	Oversee economic growth, job creation, and technological innovation	Assistance with business resources, economic data, or the Census Bureau
Department of Defense	Responsible for national defense and military affairs	Assistance with veterans' services, defense contracting, or military recruitment
Department of Education	Ensure access to quality education	Assistance with student loans, grants, educational programs, or K-12 and higher education support
Department of Energy	Manage energy resources, nuclear security, and energy research	Assistance with energy efficiency programs or access to renewable energy incentives
Department of Health and Human Services	Focus on public health, welfare programs, and social services	Assistance with healthcare services, including Medicaid, or support for public health initiatives
Department of Homeland Security	Ensure national security and emergency preparedness	Assistance with disaster response, immigration services, or cybersecurity support

Department of Housing and Urban Development	Manage housing policies and urban development	Citizens may need assistance with affordable housing, home loans, or homelessness programs
Department of Interior	Manage national parks, public lands, and natural resources	Assistance with national park access, wildlife protection, or resource management
Department of Justice	Oversee the legal system, including federal law enforcement and civil rights	Assistance with criminal justice issues, legal aid, or federal investigations
Department of Labor	Oversee working conditions, employment laws, and labor rights	Assistance with job training, unemployment benefits, or workplace rights
Department of State	Manage U.S. foreign relations and diplomatic efforts	Assistance with passports, visas, or international travel advisories
Department of Transportation	Oversee transportation infrastructure and safety	Assistance with vehicle registration, travel safety, or transportation grants
Department of the Treasury	Manage federal finances, tax policies, and the monetary system	Assistance with tax filing, financial assistance programs, or economic policy information
Department of Veterans Affairs	Provide services to military veterans, including healthcare and benefits	Assistance with veterans' medical care, disability claims, or pension benefits